Pitching, writing and presenting in a way people actually remember.

Operating fundamentals

The everyday skills that keep a team or a small business running smoothly.

[FAQ]

Honest answers to the small stuff.

Is this for founders or employees?

Both — the fundamentals of strategy and communication apply at any level.

Do I need business experience?

No — lessons are built to be useful from your very first job.

What topics are covered?

Strategy, communication, pitching and the everyday operating skills that rarely get taught formally.

How is this different from a business degree?

Shorter, more practical, and focused on what you can apply immediately.
