Built for people who just want to learn.

Numbers without the jargon

Accounting and budgeting explained the way you would explain it to a friend.

Built for small business

Bookkeeping and cash-flow lessons sized for a small team, not a finance department.

Plan with confidence

Understand your numbers well enough to make decisions, not just report them.

[FAQ]

Honest answers to the small stuff.

Is this for personal or business finance?

Both — foundational lessons apply to either, with dedicated sessions for small-business bookkeeping.

Do I need an accounting background?

No — the track starts from first principles and builds up.

Will this replace an accountant?

No, but it will help you understand your numbers well enough to work with one confidently.

Is tax covered?

General principles are covered; always confirm specifics with a qualified professional.
